who after thorough discussions approve the syllabus of any programme. Each department applied the courses keeping in view the programme outcomes, programme specific outcomes and course outcomes in their curriculum.

The Board of Studies of each department oversees the relevancy and requirements of the course in each programme that the department offers. As the Board of Studies is conducted every year, the departments regularly revise courses as per needs.

Though minor revision is a common practice, major revision is also done whenever required.

Students and teachers feedbacks are always used for the upgradation of the curricula. For research fields and topics, the courses are discussed first in the Departmental and then institutional Research Committee (DRCs & IRC) for the final approval.

2.2 - Catering to Student Diversity

2.2.1 - The institution assesses students' learning levels and organises special programmes for both slow and advanced learners.

The college admits students from various socio-economic backgrounds. The students are counseled, guided and oriented at the time of admission to make them aware about the course, mode of internal assessment, external assessment, curricular and co-curricular activities, rules and regulations of the institution as well as facilities available in the college. At the beginning of each course teachers assess the learning levels of the students in the class, their knowledge about the course and accordingly special programmes for advanced learners and slow learners are planned. The college conducts every possible measure to assess the learning levels of its students like Continuous and Comprehensive Evaluation (CCE), Semester End Assignments, presentations, discussions & viva-voce exam. The institution has given clear instruction to all stream/ departments to organize online classes separately for both advanced learners and slow learners during holidays and vacations. This practice is initiated as a part of a blended learning system for the students having different learning capabilities. Remedial and extra classes are conducted for slow learners.

4.2 - Library as a Learning Resource

4.2.1 - Library is automated using Integrated Library Management System (ILMS)

The library has around 18000+ Titles with 34000+ books in stock. Each book is identified by a unique Accession number. The books are classified on the basis of subject. Issue and receipt of books is made by entering the book and student details into the system in the existing client-server based software. The existing client-server based library software is being replaced by a new cloud-based system from IGuru. The Library management is a module and forms a part of the college management software. In the new system all the books will have a unique qr-code and the location will be identified by Rack & Shelf number. Smart Cards will be issued to the students. The entire list of books will be available on the mobile app where the students will be able to choose a book of their interest. Key-word based search will be available for faster and more accurate search of the books. New system will go-live with effect from the next session. Testing and Data porting to the new software is in-progress.

College has annual subscription for 'DELNET' services for access to e-books, e-journals etc. Desktops with internet / DELNET access are installed in the Library for the students who wish to access, download/print study-material. Username/Password for access is provided by the librarian.

6.5 - Internal Quality Assurance System

6.5.1 - Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) has contributed significantly for institutionalizing quality assurance strategies and processes visible in terms of incremental improvements made during the preceding year with regard to quality (in case of the First Cycle): Incremental improvements made during the preceding year with regard to quality and post-accreditation quality initiatives (Second and subsequent cycles)

IQAC organizes workshop, training programs for faculty members periodically to upgrade the teaching learning process, especially development of e-content and video lectures. Faculty participated in a training program for development of e-content and use of e-resources on teaching and related activities under the banner of National Institute of Educational Planning and Administration, New Delhi (NIEPA, New Delhi). The FDP proved extremely beneficial to help the participants to understand the process of planning, designing and delivering online courses, Adopt Google Classroom & Moodle-Platform as an adjunct to face-to-face teaching and to teach in a full online or distance learning context. It also helps to create better and active communication and collaboration with the students along with designing contemporary assessment methods.

Class lectures and learning resources are designed by the participants to achieve the course objectives.

Our faculty also participated in another very beneficial workshop organized by the state HE body with hands-on sessions on designing online courses with Google classroom - LMS and building the competencies of teachers for online teaching.

After enriching these special courses some of the faculty members are involved in designing course contents of NEP.

In terms of improvements made for the preceding year with regard to quality we are opening new courses and we have introduced BA Psychology in the coming session 2022-2023 as passed in G B Meeting (Statutory Body).

It has given the students a practical way of learning managerial skills. This is a continuous activity in the teaching learning process.

2. Student Training Program:

One of the initiatives suggested by IQAC is the student training program. This program is designed to provide the professional skill sets with the goal of enhancing opportunities in the industry and nursing services. The program involves various activities which help to boost employability through aptitude test, group discussions, personal interviews, role play, current awareness quiz, subject/domain specific quiz, foundation course. The assessment of the students is done by an expert team and the review is taken by IQAC. The suggestions are incorporated in planning and thus the effective implementation of the student training program has been done.
